Learning and Teaching in the Practice of Social Work Reynolds stresses the need for the professional social worker to be educated as a whole person. She describes the stages of conscious intelligence in the process of learning and relates them to the motivation for learning. Softcover, 1985 (originally published 1942) List price $21.95/Member price $20.00
Social Work and Social Living The practice and philosophy of social work are critically examined. Reynolds argues, based on her experiences with labor unions, that the orientation of social agencies toward psychological dynamics make it difficult for clients to seek help. Softcover, 1987 (originally published 1951) List price $8.95/Member price $8.00
Between Client and Community Caseworkers are often caught between the conflicting needs of their clients and the community, especially in times of rapid change. Reynolds examines how these conflicting demands can be resolved. Softcover, 1982 (originally published 1934) List price $8.95/Member price $8.00
Uncharted Journey Reynolds' inspirational autobiography dedicated to "young social workers who are facing realities and shaping our profession with courage and creativity." Covers the development of her practice philosophy and the source of her career from 1914-1964. Softcover, 1991 (originally published 1991) List price $21.95/Member price $20.00
The Years Have Spoken A collection of annual greetings sent by Reynolds to her friends from 1935-1973. This limited edition includes her annual original verse and narrative describing the condition of the world that year and how she had been affected by these events. Makes an excellent holiday or graduation gift. Softcover, 1988 List price $12.95/Member price $10.00
